ANNUAL ELK CREEK ICE CREAM SOCIAL TO BE HELD FOR WILDFIRE AWARENESS & MEETING YOUR FIRST RESPONDERS

GLENN COUNTY, CA – Ice cream, fire engines, and a helicopter landing—what more could you ask for on a summer evening in June?

The Glenn County Resource Conservation District (RCD), Elk Creek Volunteer Fire Department, Tehama-Glenn Firesafe Council, and partners invite the community to the Annual Elk Creek Ice Cream Social - Wildfire Awareness & Meet Your First Responders on Friday, June 12, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the Elk Creek High School Football Field, 3430 Co Rd 309 in Elk Creek, CA.

Since its debut in 2019, this family-friendly event has become a local favorite—bringing neighbors together for a relaxed evening with a serious purpose: helping the community stay prepared and protected during wildfire season.

What to Expect:

- Free ice cream and community connection
- Up-close access to fire engines and emergency equipment
- A CAL FIRE helicopter demonstration (pending availability)
- Demonstrations and practical tips on protecting your home, land, and livestock
- Meet and talk with the first responders who serve your community
- Fun, hands-on activities for kids of all ages

“This event is about more than just ice cream,” said Kandi Manhart-Belding, Executive Officer, Glenn County RCD. “It is about building relationships, sharing knowledge, connecting community with First Responders and making sure our community is ready for wildfire season.”

Whether you are a longtime resident, new to the area, or just curious about wildfire preparedness, this event offers something valuable—and enjoyable—for everyone.

Admission is free. Bring your family, your questions, and your neighbors.

All equipment and demonstrations are subject to emergency response availability.
